

Year 10 Reading at home

The below list is a guide for you for the next few weeks.

There are a variety of different ways that you can access literature online:

www.openculture.com – This is a free website with access to hundreds of ebooks that you can download directly to your phone/tablet.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/category/childrens> - This is a free website from the BBC where you can listen to a number of audio books through the BBC app.

<https://liverpool.gov.uk/libraries/ereading/> - This link is for Liverpool Libraries. You will need to register your details (for free) and have a Liverpool address; once you have registered you have access to hundreds of free ebooks that you can read online/on your phone.
